Kansas City Missions Trip

Stephanie finds a new friend.

The group enjoys a picnic lunch during a break.

The circus is enjoyed by Tanya and her friend.

David helps apply the "Sheila shine" in the kitchen at the men's mission.

(top and bottom) A "chapel" service is held for the people at the City Union Mission which mainly cares for women and children.

The children are very friendly, as Scott finds out.

Dave Dettwiler gets a big hug from "Lovie," one of the many children.

The group stayed at a very generous church in K.C.

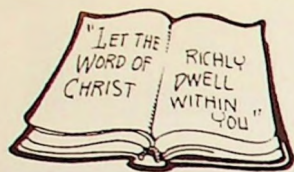

A quaint group shot before leaving for the two-day journey.

Celebration Singers is a 24 person concert choir. During their fall and spring tour, they travelled with the Inspiration Ringers throughout Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, and Missouri. In addition to their formal concerts, the group performed a musical entitled "The Pledge," and they also presented "Gloria" by Vivaldi (with orchestral accompaniment) in the spring.

Triumphant Sound

Triumphant Sound is the scholarship vocal ensemble of Manhattan Christian College. Under the leadership of John Poulson and the music direction of Professor RubyAnn Poulson, this group has represented the College throughout the United States at many churches, youth camps and conventions. Its primary purpose is ministry, whether it is to an entire audience or on a one-on-one basis.

Triumphant Sound has been together since 1975, traveling an average of two weekends each month. Each school year a new group is auditioned and selected for the following year. This year's group represents four states. The members are: Holly Anderson of Sedgwick, Kansas; Heather Brooks of Arvin, California; Laurin Hill of Dalhart, Texas; Calana Needham of Garden City, Kansas; Adam Ormord of Phoenix, Arizona; Audrey Ross of Codell, Kansas; Derek Shacklett of Oakley, Kansas and Jeff Setzer, 1991 MCC graduate, Manhattan, Kansas.

Together these individuals are a dynamic and inspirational group signifying the kingdom of God. These young people are actively serving Jesus Christ.

"Don't let your hearts be hardened" is the message from T.S. in chapel.

Ta-da! T.S. performs with rave reviews at Woman's World.

Magic with a message by Bill and Jeff.

Gospel teams are designed to provide opportunities for students to share the gospel through their talents.

This year there were four groups. Undivided, a singing group; Transformed, a drama group; The Bill and Jeff Illusion Show, a magic team; and the chapel band.

The groups serve a two-fold purpose. Not only do they provide a way to preach the good news, but they also give local churches a chance to get familiar with students from MCC.

A lot of effort is put into the groups since they are organized by the students themselves. Faculty members are present only to provide approval for the presentations. The rest of the work comes from the individuals in the groups.

These groups are very rewarding to be a part of and lives are changed on both sides — for those who perform and for those who watch the performances.

Jack, Brandon, Ron, Amy, and Wendy provide music in chapel.

(center) STUCO members get together at their weekly meeting.

The annual Christmas banquet is relished by all.

This has been a fun and exciting year here at MCC, largely in part to the efforts of STUCO. In addition to organizing Skip Day, the winter banquet, "tag," the barn party, and Spring Banquet, STUCO has sponsored many of the other activities on campus, and has encouraged spiritual growth and stronger relationships among the students.

The major concentration in STUCO this year was the returning of the campus center to the students. Once the library was moved to the classroom building, the area was repainted, a big screen t.v. and furniture were purchased and video games, etc. were brought in.

Because of the leadership of STUCO, student funds were able to be put to use in a more meaningful, lasting way, and the students, once again, have a place where they can retreat from their studies — even if for but a moment.

Dennis Bloodworth leads the students in a ribbon-cutting ceremony that officially marks the return of the campus center to the students.

John Poulson maps out yet another weekend of excitement.

The admissions department at MCC enjoyed an especially good year. Phil Alsapaw was added to the staff and enrollment was up ten percent. The office staff worked hard to get all of the paperwork processed.

The Ad-Team members put out effort all year long at recruitment. They staffed several events such as Fall Fest., Crusade '92, Jr. High Weekend, and several Bible Bowl tournaments. Each was glad to have the opportunity to minister to kids as well as share the MCC experience.

Already the admissions office is planning for next year. "We are hoping for another ten percent increase in enrollment," Lis Bahm said when talking about the staff's expectations. Plans are well under way for another year of activities and special recruitment weekends.

(right) The rough riders of MCC — Leigh Ann, Jodi, Kelly, Jennifer, and Julie.

On October 24, 1991 SAC sponsored a get acquainted barn party at Judd and Nancy Swihart's barn. It's no wonder the party was a hit! Included in the evening's events were a chug-a-lug contest, a sack pull, a cowboy contest, a two-step contest, and a sheep-kissing relay. Even Dr. Glenn donned a hat to participate in the event and to deliver a message. The students had a "hay day" and greatly appreciated the time SAC put into planning the event.

Events

The students enjoy the best cafeteria food of the year at the Christmas dinner. (Jenifer, Sheila, Tamiru, Haile, C.J., and Jennifer)

Nick, Amy, Scott and Jack enjoy the food and festivities at the "reopening" of the Campus Center.

Award recipients at the President's Appreciation Dinner: Joyce Gregg, Employee of the Year; Char Means, Volunteer of the Year; Roger Sink and Claude Wright, Distinguished Service Award.

Dr. Warren practices his interpersonal skills of service at the Christmas banquet.

Can Drive

Once again, MCC was one of the top donors in the Flint Hills Breadbasket food drive. Students met the challenge of collecting over 5,000 cans of food, causing John Poulson to lose his beard, Steve Isom to find his, and Larry Graber to lose it all — the hair and the mustache. Judging by their discomfort, the stakes should be much higher next year!

Tari Moats presents the cans to representatives of the Flint Hills Breadbasket.

The hair-cutting horde prepares to do their job when the totals are tallied.

The cans came in and Mr. Isom's hair came out!

The fruits of their labor.

Senior Soliloquy 1992

It's time to roast the seniors, so I've been told
But we won't give a rap again; already that's gotten old.
So see if you can guess what kind of poetry you hear.
We'll try to make it rhyme here and there, pleasing to your ear.

Matt Balocca is a humble type guy.
He's worked his way through here to become alumni.
In more than one eatery he has served us a plate.
If "the meek shall inherit the earth," he'll have a lot of real estate.

Vibrant, happy, talkative Wendy Boulais
Can organize a party or a banquet without delay.
She has a lot of hair, which maybe she would share.
She could throw some Dr. Warren's way; what do you say, Boulais?

Dwight David Bradshaw is a lovable guy.
At least, that's what Kim says, and she wouldn't lie.
He has a sense of humor, and he's not above a prank.
If you're missing your shoes, your coat, or your teeth, well, you might have Dwight to thank.

David Brundage is a well-rounded man.
He's interested in missions in a foreign land.
He's super conscientious, has a keen mind to boot.
He's made it through with honors, and on very little loot.

Soccer champ Todd Clark comes up next in our guild.
He socks it to the youth, just like he's out on the field.
We tried to keep him here, but we just couldn't hold him back.
We wish him the best at Mt. Pleasant in his Hoosier state attack.

What will we do when Terry Elston moves on?
He's kept our building up without "alas," "alack" or "anon."
He has a weekend ministry in Barnes. It's very clear
He's going to do well in work of the Lord year after year.

"Date-around Doug" Fletcher could be quite a clown.
He shocked the world when he settled down.
With his sweet wife Karen, in Council Grove he serves,
Working with C. E. and youth, lots of credit he deserves.

Long, tall, and handsome Lane Gregg from Wichita
Loves the Shockers, thinks they're without a flaw.
He was Isom's favorite student, likes to work with youth.
Of his humor they stand in awe—well, that's not quite the truth.

Sarah Lynn Grover has her head on straight.
A third-generation student—we think she's great!
Her long list of talents would you astound.
She's a scholar, an actress, a Bible Bowl sponsor, and that's the first round.

Soccer pro Todd Hutchison always has something brewin'.
He was the president of Sanderson, and that takes some doin'.
He's kind to children, and his freckles are cute.
If you want to know his opinion, he can give you a beaut.

Lesia Leigh Hysong has a musical name.
We're sure it must mean "classical," and she'll have classic fame.
She's an Arizona transfer and a volleyball whiz.
We hope she stays the same, because we like her like she is.

Family man Ron Kusak, with the black wavy hair,
Has a charisma that he's glad to share.
A happy kind of person, he has cheered us now and again.
We can't list all his assets. We wouldn't know where to begin.

What can we say about Natalie McVay?
She's bubbly, dependable, friendly in the Natalie McVay way.
Nat is friends with the world, involved in everything around.
And even against men on the golf course she can hold her ground.

Youth-lovin' Dan Mitchell came from the homeland of Mizzou.
He's entertained us nobly while he's been passing through.
Dan married Donna, and they make a dandy pair.
He's the first of the Velcro graduates—now let me ask you, is that fair?

Talented Donna Mitchell married the guy we just referred to.
If you want to get her to do something for you it only takes a word to.
Why does Dan come before Donna in this day of woman's lib?
It's simple alphabetics, so, Dan, don't get too glib.

Justin Moxley likes to do things up right.
He had his college Lookout service soaring out of sight.
A good up-front person, he scores with any age.
When it comes to the deeper subjects of life, he's quite a sage.

Mike O'Neil likes to fly up high.
And with his EMT training, he's a valuable kind of guy.
He plans to combine his talents in missions, airborne above worldly things.
We wish him the best as he goes on his quest, and a golden pair of wings.

Audrey Ross is a songbird, for sure.
Dependable and talented, her success is secure.
She's sewed Singers' dresses, and they didn't have to beg.
Before he knew what was happening, she had sewed up Craig.

Senior Troy Schroeder didn't want to go.
He hung around a long time 'cause he loved us so.
The job of Sanderson pres. had prepared him for life.
Now he's becoming an Okie, and he has a new wife.

Sweet Angela Turner, a lady without guile,
Could win your heart alone with her beautiful smile.
She wants to be a counselor, and she'll do well at that.
We'll miss her giggle, her scholarship. She knows where it's at.

Doug Van Wey has gotten into the groove.
He's a well-rounded guy who has nothing to prove.
He likes to ask questions like Habakuk, will preach the word.
He's a pleasure to teach in class; what the profs have said, he's heard.

Sportsman Paul Wilson is Justin's cuz.
He didn't necessarily plan it that way—he just was.
Paul and his intended will go far, it does seem.
Will their kids be Pauline or will they be Paulene?

With a name like "Wright," how could Brian be wrong?
He thinks Colorado's the greatest.
He's attracted to bikes, thinks soccer's a song.
His ranching? It's in step with the latest.

So you've all been wondering what kind of poem you've heard.
You may think calling it "poetry" a bit absurd.
Exactly what type of poetic thought have I been trying to beget?
It's not for sure, but I have a hunch, they haven't named it yet.

-Ruth Ann Warren-

Woman's World

Woman's World scholarship recipients receive recognition from Marcy Cassel, chairman of Woman's World. (Staci Hall, Tari Moats, and Jami Frey)

(center) Donna Mitchell joins her mother, Roberta Carmen (main speaker), for a little surprise announcement.

Library Move

Doc Warren boasts that he can carry more books than Rick.

Jake Glover, Heather Fretz, and Shawn Bean use their time wisely to catch up on some reading.

Sasha Kirkpatrick smiles while baby Roxanne has her own opinion on spending the day moving books.

The moving crew — in charge of moving the stacks from one building to the other — pauses for a picture. (Can you find Stacey in this picture?)

Zheng Le waits as Dr. Caulley delivers his load of books. (Later Dr. Caulley admitted that he read all the books he carried.)

Janet Scott and Kevin Segal take a quick break from their work to take a picture.

Elizabeth, Jennifer, Eileen, Angie, and Missie all do their part with joyful smiles.

Tim Douglass catches up with Hiram Cassel to talk with him about the reading assignment.

STUDENT LIFE

The freshmen show some true MCC spirit.
(Teresa Fulfer, Leslie Schelhaas, Jackie Strohl, and Terrie Woodward.)

“God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me.”

—Genesis 21:6

Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is —
His good, pleasing and perfect will.

NOTEWORTHY

Steve Gregersen won fourth prize in the Amy Writing Awards competition. The Amy Foundation awards program is designed to recognize creative, skillful writing that presents the Biblical position on issues affecting the world today. To be submitted, articles must be published in a secular, non-religious publication. Steve's article, "Telling Youth Truth About Sex," was originally published in the Manhattan Mercury. He received a $3,000 prize in recognition for his work.

R.D. Cogswell won the high jump in both the indoor and the outdoor championships for the Big Eight. R.D. told newspaper reporters, "I pray before every jump ... and then I go through my approach about five times mentally." His jump at the indoor championships set a new Wildcat record.

*We give you our blessing,
Justin, and we release
you to become what God has created you to be,
and to find your own unique way of serving our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.*

Always remember what your Grandpa Wilson would say as we strive to find our way:

"Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth."

--11 Timothy 2:15

Love, Mom and Roy

Wendy Le Anne Boulais

Wendy, the Christian training that God has seen fit to give you is for purposes that you may never know in your lifetime. Be patient, but alert for the direction that He wants you to go. Some tasks He'll have you do may seem so insignificant that you might not even notice His hand in them, but the work will always be important. Remember to always thank God for the gift of using you to do His work, no matter how tough it gets. Love, Dad.

Sweetheart, I love you and I am very proud of you and your accomplishments! I pray God's blessings for you each and every day! Keep him first in your heart and in your life, and you will always have peace. Love, Mom. XXXXXX

Wendy, thanks for all the time you have spent with me, helping me. Good luck! Love, Jeff #44

P.S. A very special thanks to each student and teacher that has helped to mold and change Wendy these last few years. It has been hard to share her, but a little easier knowing what godly people have been there for her!!!

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith . . .

If You Think Life After College is a "No-Credit" Course...

Think Again.

Think Pre-Approval from Ford Credit and $500 Cash Back from Ford At [Dealer Name].

Four years of 3-credit courses... but no credit at the bank?

Not any more! The Ford Motor Company College Graduate Purchase Program gives you the credit you deserve — pre-approved credit! plus Ford is offering $500 luxury cash on virtually every Ford or Mercury vehicle we sell or lease.

All it takes is a Bachelor's or advanced degree earned between October 1, 1990 and December 31, 1992... (you're also eligible if you're currently enrolled in graduate school)... a decision to purchase or lease... and to take delivery from us by December 31, 1992.

Get the credit you've earned, plus the great feel that comes only from a brand new car... with

Ford Credit

the outstanding quality built into every Ford Motor Company vehicle.

Get pre-approved credit from Ford Credit now — to build even more credit as your good record grows. For credit, plus $500 cash back, we're the best course you can take.

Pre-approved credit requires verifiable employment within 130 days of vehicle purchase or lease, with a salary sufficient to cover ordinary living expenses and vehicle payments. A prior credit history is not necessary. If there is any, it must indicate payments made as agreed.

Bertha breaking the ground for J. Donald Coffin Memorial Hall.

BERTHA COFFIN

Portrait of a successful business woman, using her strengths for the Lord and for mankind.

Bertha Coffin is a committed Christian who cares about young people and wants to make an impact on the world. Her late husband, J. Donald, was an attorney and president of the Council Grove Telephone Company, Council Grove, Kansas. He was appointed to the Advisory Council of Manhattan Christian College only weeks prior to his death in September, 1978. At that time Bertha took over operations of the telephone company as its president.

Mrs. Coffin models Christian stewardship. She is not a person of great means, but is one who believes that she is a steward of what has been given to her, and wishes that it be used for the cause of Christ and the benefit of others. She has followed in the steps of her late husband in support of Manhattan Christian College and has become a member of its Advisory Council. In 1987, she was appointed to the Board of Trustees and was elected as its chairman in 1991.

Bertha's generous support has made it possible for the college to make needed improvements on its campus. Because of her support, the 1992 VISION staff would like to dedicate the yearbook to her.
